

Curriculum Vitae of Brigitte Gabriëlle Möller

Research interests and skills

Anthropology of health and illness, ageing, social policy, social (in)equality, migration theory, ethnography

Education

September 2012 – September 2015	Social Sciences (research master), University of Amsterdam, diploma Specialization track: Anthropology of health, care and the body Topics: mental health care, policy analysis, ageing, migration processes, ethnographic research
	Law (minor), University of Amsterdam Courses: Introduction to Legal Practice and Theory, Constitutional Law, European Law, Fundamental Rights
July – August 2012	Intensive Summer Course for Research Methodology: Qualitative track, University of Amsterdam
September 2009 – June 2012	Cultural Anthropology and Development Sociology (bachelor), University of Amsterdam, diploma Bachelor thesis: ‘Social Participation through Abnormal Classification: An Inquiry of the Relativistic Critiques on the Medicalization of ‘Natural’ Human Conditions’ Graded with 9 (A+)

Research experience

October 2017 – ongoing	University of Vienna: PhD-candidate (project: ‘Translating difference as culture? Care for elderly Turkish migrants in Vienna and Amsterdam’)
May 2017 – September 2017	University of Eindhoven: Research assistant (project: ‘Well-being and sustainability in the Netherlands, 1850-2050’, funded by NWO) Tasks: archive research of newspaper articles, editing chapters
June 2016 – February 2017	Pharos, Utrecht: Research internship (member of the groups ‘Health for the Elderly’ and ‘Participation and Self-Determination’) Tasks: report on accessibility of Dutch health-care documents, assist in writing proposal for funds, literature reviews
January 2015 – October 2015	University of Amsterdam: Research for thesis of research master (project on cultural-specific care institute in Rotterdam) Tasks: gaining access to the field, participant observation, performing in-depth interviews, analysing data, analyse policy formations

July 2014 – February 2015	Amsterdam Institute for Global Health and Development: Research internship Tasks: literature review, analysing and reporting about secondary data from focus group discussions, working with software program Nvivo
June 2014 – August 2014	University of Amsterdam: Research assistant for comparative project about Moroccan entrepreneurs in Amsterdam and Milan Tasks: gaining access to the field, performing interviews and questionnaires, store data in software program Egonet
June 2011 – May 2013	Research and Statistics Amsterdam (O&S Amsterdam): Interviewer and pollster Tasks: approaching informants, performing interviews and questionnaires about the liveability of Amsterdam (mainly among migrants)

Other work experience

March 2016 – August 2016	Nuon, Amsterdam: Administrative assistant Tasks: registering and signing out of clients, informing clients about products, creating delivery notes
May 2014 – March 2016	Foodbank Amsterdam (VBA): Coordinator food output – volunteer work Tasks: supervising and coordinating activities of fifteen volunteers, maintaining administrative data about clients, divide food and products among clients
February 2012 – September 2013	Refugee Council Amsterdam (SVAZ): Language coach – volunteer work Tasks: assisting refugees with learning Dutch language and with administrative tasks
October 2012 – June 2013	Amsterdam Student Festival: Member of festival committee – volunteer work Tasks: organizing professional jury for the festival, recruiting participants for the festival, organizing auditions
June 2010 – December 2011	Hospital Onze Lieve Vrouwe Gasthuis (OLVG), Amsterdam: Administrative assistant at internal employment agency Tasks: processing data and files of incoming employees, fulfil various administrative tasks
September 2009 – August 2010	Anthropological Student Organization Kwakiutl, Amsterdam: Member of student committee – volunteer work Tasks: organizing readings, maintaining contacts between teachers and Kwakiutl, maintaining contact with student members