

Orishas Night

Moving Towards Planetary Peace

Dancing, singing, drumming and feeling the power of the Yoruba Deities

Culture exchange led by Orisha-priest Olakela Massetungi from Trinidad/Tobago

Delicious Veg/Non-Veg Food and Drinks will be available

weltTraum -
Centro Once

Schneidergasse 15, 1110 Wien

Di, 8. Okt. '19

18-23 Uhr, Eintritt: € 11.-

Ermäßigung für KulturpassinhaberInnen: € 6.-

Program

18:30-19:30 Uhr Lecture „Moving towards planetary Peace“ by Olakela Massetungi

Substance: Review of planetary history leading to mercantilism and Slave Trade, facts about depopulation of Africas labour force and its impact upon continental economy, thoughts and presentation of world-wide movements for world peace and justice based on social and economic restauration Africas

20:00-22:00 Uhr Music & Culture Sessions:

Drums, Dance, and Songs for Orishas and Global Peace
Olakela Massetungi from Trinidad, Tobago (Voice, Afro-Percussion)
Achille Acakpo, Benin (Voice, Afro-Percussion)
Karim Sanou, Burkina Faso (Afro-Percussion)
Karin Bindu & friend, Austria (Afro-Percussion)

An event by Globalista: grenzüberschreitende Kulturarbeit und Forschung in cooperation with weltTraum-Centro Once, Rhythmus & Moving Pot

Olakela Massetungi was born in Republic Trinidad & Tobago- Caribbean, in 1955. During the Black Power Uprising of 1970 Olakela became an initiate of the Yoruba science system practiced in Trinidad & Tobago. Today he holds the titles of OTUNBA ATOODIMU Caribbean Region of the Worldwide Isese Agbaiye Community, OLUTO ALAGBA of AJO OFUWA Ile Durani ati Ile Aloubera. He is founding member of Egbe Onisin Eledumare, Oloye Orawale Oranfe Ife.

